

BOOK LOVER

People who love reading

Book Lovers In Specific Terms

- › Love of books in specific terms is known as “Bibliophilia”
- › Many people call them ‘Bookworm as criticizing’ but they have a distinct mindset than others actually.

They know the dimensions, values, perceptions and importance. They are the most adorable people in search of facts.

Kinds of Book Lovers

You can see readers of all kinds if you go to a bookshop, library, or just glance around your own book club

The Habitual Book Clubber

Fiction readers

Series Junkies

The Physical Book Loyalists

The Habitual Book clubber

Book clubs are a good way to meet new people and discover great books. Probably belong to multiple groups and are constantly attempting to form new ones by persuading friends, family, and coworkers to join them.

Characteristics

- They discuss and choose new books
- Makes groups for more exploration
- Share thoughts on different topics
- Helps each other to get right results

Fiction Readers

Fiction readers are those who want joy, and happy endings, and enjoy their imaginary world.

Characteristics

- Then enjoy reading for hours.
- They forget the stress.
- They read to get motivated.

The fantastic thing about fiction readers is that there are 55% women and 33% men.

Series Junkies

Some readers can't tolerate the thought of single books since they find that they can only really get into reading when they have an entire series to get lost in.

Characteristics

- They enjoy binge reading
- Attends midnight release parties
- Reread their favorite series

The Physical Book Loyalists

Many readers prefer printed books rather than ebooks or audiobooks. Everyone has a different school of thought about reading.

Characteristics

- They love real reading
- Likes the smell of paper
- Outlines the content to avoid digital rays
- Long time study

Regular Readers

- In this type of book, readers are always loaded with knowledge. They can talk dynamically on each topic.
- They build a strong influence upon others.
- They are habitual of daily reading literature, philosophy and psychology.

Reading gives freedom and builds confidence.

Styles of Readers

SKIMMING

A style of skip reading to get an overview by reading the first line or a section

SCANNING

A style reading where to finding an answer, getting a proper quotation or reference

DEPTH READING

A style of reading where you cover the concept by all means

Book Lovers impact on society

- Recent research has shown that book readers are well informed as compared to others.
- They are more conscious of their surroundings and have an easier time putting themselves in other people's shoes.
- They are better able to analyze their behavior as well as that of others. They can learn a variety of talents through reading books, which also helps them stand out in the workflow.

Fit in Society

- They show good behavior.
- They understand and share the burden.
- Helps in the development of useful skills.
- Motivate them.
- They reflect.

Books are the best healers

No one can deny that books are the best healers.

Books release stress and satisfy your souls with words. If you read a book you will feel that your own stories are served by another mind. Nothing can replace a book but another book.

Now many readers use ebooks or phones when they are away or traveling. The book never lies in any situation, you can get the right path from a book.

Impact on Brain

According to research

- Reading activates the brain.
- An elaborate network of circuits and messages.
- Additionally, these networks get stronger and more sophisticated as your reading skills become advance.
- They have high general abilities.
- Develops cognitive skills and enhances intelligence.

THE END

